Junior Festivals Information
Lisa Smith, FFMC Festivals Chair

As we prepare for a new Festivals season it is imperative that Area Festival Chairs, Junior Counselors, and teachers be familiar with all national, state, and local guidelines and deadlines. There are many documents available to our members that they can utilize to ensure that they observe the rules. In addition to the invaluable information contained in the NFMC Federation Festivals Bulletin, members can download for free the following helpful and educational documents: the NFMC Junior Division Federation Festivals Procedures Manual (JR 3-18) which can be found on the NFMC website and the FFMC Junior Procedures Manual that is on the FFMC website under the Junior Festivals menu. Both of the aforementioned documents are revised annually. FFMC makes a point to send to all its members the FFMC Junior Procedures Manual. This manual contains the rules which govern the FFMC State Junior Convention competition. It is every teacher and Junior Counselor’s obligation to read, comprehend and observe all procedures in order to ensure positive festival experiences for all participants. I cannot stress the importance of regularly checking the National Federation of Music Clubs website (nfmc-music.org) for 2017 – 2020 Bulletin adjustments as they are also updated on a regular basis.

Many of the NFMC Festivals forms have been revised drastically this year. If you are an Area Festivals Chair, please make sure that your Festival Center uses only forms that are marked “August 2017” in the lower right corner. A new addition to the national forms is the “Federation Festivals Student Event History” (JR 3-11). This template was designed specifically with the intent of providing teachers with a new tool to aid them in planning and record keeping. All national forms, including the JR 3-11, can be downloaded from the NFMC website under Publications/Junior Division.
