- H. Serve on the FFMC Executive Committee and Board of Directors.

ARTICLE XI. ELECTIONS

Section 1. Elective officers. FFMC elective officers shall be elected at the state convention in the odd-numbered calendar year for a term of two years or until successors are elected. No elected officer of the Federation shall serve as president of a district or a senior music club at the same time.

Section 2. Nominating Committee.

- A. Selection of the Nominating Committee: At the convention in the even-numbered calendar year, the state president shall appoint the chair of the nominating committee. The Board of Directors shall elect six additional members who have shown active interest in the Federation, one from each of the remaining six districts.

B. Duties of the Nominating Committee:

1. This committee shall present a complete slate of officers to the Executive Committee with their qualifications no later than February 15. The consent of all candidates must be obtained before the report is made. Only active members in good standing shall be eligible for nomination. The Nominating Committee shall ensure that all nominees meet the minimum qualifications for office as set forth in these bylaws.
2. On the first day of the convention the chair of the nominating committee shall present to the qualified voters a list of the names and qualifications of those nominated for each office. Nominations for any office may then be made from the floor. A majority vote shall elect.

Section 3. Report of elections. The president shall announce the slate of elected officers.

Section 4. Installation. Installation of new officers and district presidents shall take place before the close of the convention.

Section 5. Term of Office.

- A. All officers shall assume their respective duties at the close of the convention at which they are elected, with the exception of the treasurer who shall assume office at the end of the fiscal year.
- B. No person shall be eligible to serve in the same office for more than two terms consecutively, with the exception of the treasurer and recording secretary. The filling of one-half or more of an unexpired term shall be considered a full term in determining the eligibility for reelection of an officer.

Section 6. Vacancies. Vacancies in elective offices shall be filled by vote of the Board of Directors for the balance of the term.

- A. Failure to perform duties. When a state officer fails to fulfill the duties of the office as detailed in these bylaws and as determined by a 2/3 vote of the Board of Directors, the officer shall be asked to resign. A vacancy in elective office shall be declared by the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE XII. BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Section 1. Personnel. The Board of Directors of FFMC shall consist of officers, additional personnel, past state presidents, division and committee chairs, district and senior club presidents.

Section 2. Duties. The Board of Directors shall:

- A. Manage the affairs and funds of the Florida Federation;
- B. Meet once a year, at the convention, the dates to be approved by the Executive Committee.

Section 3. Absences. If a member of the Board of Directors is unable to be present at the convention, a written notice, with the cause of absence, must be sent to the president.

Section 4. Business by mail ballot. When called to do so by the state president, the Board of Directors may handle by mail ballot any emergency business needing immediate attention, such as death, natural disaster, official resignations or legal action, providing the mail ballot information shall be precisely the same to each member. A complete report of such emergency mail ballots shall be included in the report of the recording secretary at the next session of the Board of Directors.

Section 5. Quorum. Twelve members of the Board of Directors shall constitute a quorum.

ARTICLE XIII. EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

Section 1. Personnel. The Executive Committee shall be composed of the state president, vice president, recording secretary, treasurer, state junior division chair, state student division chair, Finance Division chair, Junior Festivals chair, Federation Cup Chair, all past state presidents, and all current district presidents. This committee shall perform in the interval between sessions of the Board of Directors as may from time to time be deemed expedient.

Section 2. Business by mail. The Executive Committee may handle by mail ballot unfinished business of the Board of Directors, providing the mail ballot information shall be precisely the same to each member. Each member of the committee shall be immediately notified of the results of the ballot. The report of the ballot shall be in the files of the recording secretary and read at the next meeting.

Section 3. Meetings. The Executive Committee shall meet upon the call of the President or upon written request of five (5) of its members

Section 4. Quorum. Five members of the Executive Committee, at least 3 of whom shall be elective officers, shall constitute a quorum.

Section 5. Absences. Any member of the Executive Committee unable to attend any session must notify the president specifying the reason for absence. No proxy may substitute for any member of the Executive Committee.

ARTICLE XIV. DIVISIONS AND COMMITTEES

The work of the Florida Federation shall be divided into divisions, and committees as established by the Board of Directors to conform insofar as practical to those of the National Federation. The chair of each division, and committee shall be appointed by the president.

Section 1. Special committees. Special committees shall be appointed by the Board of Directors to perform such duties as may be assigned them to make the work of the Federation more effective. The chair of a special committee shall be appointed by the president.

Section 2. Duties. Division, and committee chairs shall present plans of work and reports at the convention, and shall keep records of important materials and reports for seven years, and shall give all of these to their successors within thirty days.

ARTICLE XV. FINANCES

Section 1. Sources of Income. The finances of FFMC shall be derived from membership dues and fees, interest from the endowment funds and gifts, and from such other sources as may be approved by vote of the Board of Directors. The fiscal year shall be July 1 to June 30, inclusive.

A. FFMC Memorial and Recognition Fund. Donations in amounts of less than $1,000 shall be placed in the general account. The chair shall send acknowledgment of the gifts.

B. The Florida Fellows. Anyone who contributes or in whose honor or memory is contributed $1,000 to the Operating Endowment Fund shall be known as a Florida Fellow. The chair shall send acknowledgment of the gifts.

Section 2. Finance Division. The Finance Division shall encompass committees as designated by the Federation. The Finance and Investment Committee shall be composed of the chair, who shall have a background in business, the treasurer, chair of the operating endowment fund, chair of the scholarships/awards endowment fund, and one member at large. Members of this committee, except the treasurer, shall be appointed by the president. This committee shall review and advise on all aspects of Federation finances, and shall render a report at each session of the Board of Directors.

Section 3. Budget Committee. A Budget Committee shall prepare a budget and submit copies to the Executive Committee and Board of Directors for approval at the convention. The committee shall be composed of a chair and two members appointed by the president, the Finance Division chair and the treasurer.

Section 4. Development Committee. A Development Committee shall solicit funds for the maintenance of FFMC activities through permanently endowed funds, including legacies, bequests and corporate underwriting. The committee shall be composed of a chair, two additional members appointed by the president, the Finance Division chair and the treasurer.

ARTICLE XVI. DUES

The dues and fees for NFMC and FFMC shall be stated in the FFMC standing rules. All membership dues paid are nonrefundable.

All minimum annual dues shall be paid, postmarked on or before October 1. All minimum annual junior and senior club dues shall be paid, postmarked on or before October 1. All minimum dues paid after October 1 shall include a late fee. All membership dues paid are nonrefundable.

ARTICLE XVII. NATIONAL BOARD MEMBER

Section 1. National Board Member. The representative of FFMC on the Board of Directors of NFMC shall be elected by FFMC members in even-numbered calendar years for a term of two years. The name of the elected representative, together with qualifications and assurance of willingness to serve, shall be submitted to NFMC in accordance with procedures established by NFMC. No person may serve more than two terms consecutively as NFMC Board member, a term being two years.

Section 2. Board Member at Large. Suggestions of possible nominees for Member at Large may be sent to the chair of NFMC Nominating Committee by vote of FFMC Board of Directors. The names of nominees, together with qualifications and assurance of willingness to serve, shall be submitted to NFMC in accordance with procedures established by NFMC.

ARTICLE XVIII. COUNCIL OF DISTRICT AND CLUB PRESIDENTS

Section 1. Composition. There shall be a council composed of district and club presidents organized for the purpose of discussing state and club activities and the correlation of state and local work. The chair of the Council of District and Club Presidents shall be a past state president.

Section 2. Meetings. The council shall meet at the state convention.

ARTICLE XIX. PAST PRESIDENTS ASSEMBLY

Section 1. Composition. In order to qualify for membership in a Past Presidents Assembly a person must be a past national president, a past president of a state federation, a past president of a state district or a past president of any senior active music club holding membership in the National Federation and the Florida Federation. The chair of the assembly must have served as president of the Florida Federation.

Section 2. Dues. The membership dues shall be paid to the state treasurer with the FFMC portion being retained in the Young Artist Award Fund.

Section 3. Organization. A chapter may be organized by ten or more members in good standing for a state chapter; five or more for a district chapter; three or more for a local chapter. A charter shall be issued by the NFMC chair of the Past Presidents Assembly to state, district or local chapters when they meet the requirements of the National Past Presidents Assembly and pay the charter fee.

ARTICLE XX. ENDOWMENT FUNDS

The Executive Committee shall act as the Awards/Scholarship Committee and shall act upon any new, or changes to, existing awards/scholarships. All endowed funds shall be maintained in perpetuity and be accounted for as permanently restricted net assets of FFMC. Any interest earned or capital appreciation resulting from investment of these funds shall be used for the purposes designated.

Section 1. Awards/Scholarships. Any award/scholarship established by the Florida Federation shall be presented to the Executive Committee for its consideration and vote.

- A. Endowed Scholarships/Awards. For an endowed scholarship or award to be named in the donor's name (s), or in honor or memory of someone, the amount shall be no less than $5,000.
- B. Interest. Interest from the Awards/Scholarships Endowment Fund shall be used to fund awards/scholarships, with a minimal amount designated to pay expenses for administration of the Fund.

Section 2. Operating Endowment Fund. Interest from the Operating Endowment Fund shall be used to help fund operating expenses.

ARTICLE XXI. MEMBER OF THE YEAR AWARD

Section 1. Selection. A state committee comprised of district presidents may select from the membership at large of the Florida Federation a recipient for the Member of the Year Award. The president shall appoint one of the district presidents as committee chair. After consulting with its members, the District may nominate one member whose name shall be placed in nomination by the District President. The chair shall prepare a ballot listing all names submitted and send to the committee members for voting by March 15.

Section 2. Criteria. The criteria determining the selection shall include outstanding accomplishments on behalf of the Florida Federation, dedication to the goals of the Federation and unselfish work for the Federation beyond the call of duty. The award may only be received one time by the same individual.

Section 3. Presentation. The name and qualifications of the recipient selected by a majority vote of the committee shall be sent by the chair to the state vice president (the awards chair), by April 15. The vice president shall prepare a brief résumé and a framed award certificate to be presented to the recipient at the convention.

ARTICLE XXII. PARLIAMENTARY AUTHORITY

The rules contained in the current edition of "Robert's Rules of Order, Newly Revised" shall govern this Federation in all cases to which they are applicable and in which they are not inconsistent with the bylaws of this Federation.

ARTICLE XXIII. AMENDMENTS

These bylaws may be amended by a two-thirds vote of the qualified voters present and voting at any regular session, or at an adjourned meeting thereof, or at any special session called for that purpose, provided that the proposed changes have first been approved by the Board of Directors and then notice of same has been sent to each of the federated organizations classified as active and to the other active members at least thirty days prior to the meeting at which changes are to be considered. Amendments to these bylaws shall become effective immediately.

ARTICLE XXIV. HOLD HARMLESS PROVISION

The members of the Board of Directors and the Executive Committee serve by the authority granted in the Florida Federation bylaws to oversee the finances and affairs of the Federation. Each member respectively understands and acknowledges that each such member is (i) not serving in the capacity of a trustee and (ii) shall be held harmless and shall not be personally liable, either jointly or severally, as to any action taken or not taken during his or her service to the Florida Federation as a member of the Board or Executive Committee, provided, however, that the foregoing shall not eliminate or limit:

1. the liability of any such member by a judgment or other final adjudication adverse to such member established that his or her acts or omissions were in bad faith or involved intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, or that he or she personally gained a financial profit or other advantage to which he or she was not legally entitled; or
2. the liability of any such member for any act or omission on his or her part prior to the adoption of the foregoing policy.

ARTICLE XXV. DISSOLUTION OF THE CORPORATION

Section 1. Disposition of assets. Upon dissolution of the corporation the Board of Directors shall, after paying or making provision for the payment of all the liabilities of the corporation, dispose of all the remaining assets of the corporation to the National Federation of Music Clubs for music scholarships for Florida residents.

Section 2. United States Internal Revenue Law. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, this corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on by (a) a corporation exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law or (b) a corporation contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 or any other corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law.

PROCEDURES FOR STATE AND DISTRICT MEETINGS

1. For all state meetings registration and meal function payment; shall be made payable to FFMC and sent to the registrar. For district meetings, payments are made payable to the district and sent to the district registrar.
2. Hotel registration and payment shall be made directly to the hotel.
3. Registration and meal function charges shall be sufficient to cover expenses. A state or district meeting must not show a deficit.
4. FFMC registration fee pays for name tags, meal function tickets and the printed programs for convention. District meeting expenses are paid by the district. Registration fees at district meetings shall pay for name tags, meal function tickets and the printed programs.
5. At state meetings an individual club acting as host for a meal function shall assume the responsibility for table decorations and place cards. The host district shall be responsible for fruit basket or comparable gift for the NFMC guest of honor and the state president to be placed in the hotel room upon their arrival. The host district shall be responsible for the reception honoring the guest of honor. At the district meeting the host club shall be responsible for table decorations, place cards.
6. The FFMC Protocol Chair shall receive all place cards for the scheduled meal functions from the host club(s) and the names for the place cards from the FFMC president. The Protocol Chair shall be responsible for writing on the names and placing the cards on the tables in the proper order.
7. No money shall be appropriated in a budget (state or district) for entertainment at state or district meetings. FFMC members do not receive compensation for performing at meetings for their own organization. Expenses for any special entertainment shall be the responsibility of the host club or district in charge. Special entertainment for afternoon or evening programs shall feature talented senior members for whom there shall be no payment. However, if a host club or district wishes to bring in special outstanding talent (non-members) and there is a fee for the performance, the club or district must assume this financial responsibility.
8. At a state convention one luncheon should feature Junior Division state winners and one luncheon should feature student and/or young artist state winners. Such performers may be guests of FFMC for the meal function at which they perform. No other expenses shall be allowed.
9. FFMC senior members who perform at luncheons, dinners or banquets may be the meal guests of FFMC for the meal function at which they perform.
10. Since the state president or district president is responsible for all programs at meetings it is the presidents' responsibility to find as much talent as possible within that district. For this reason the meetings should be held in the different districts. The president may ask for suggestions from a host club or district but reserves the right of final decision.
11. Hotel and scheduled meal function expenses for the FFMC president shall be assumed by FFMC. The complimentary hotel room shall be assigned to the FFMC president.
12. The expenses for hotel and scheduled meal functions for the NFMC guest of honor and invited spouse shall be paid by FFMC. FFMC should assume the responsibility of any additional meals or hotel expenses for the guest of honor made necessary by travel schedules in order for the guest to arrive in time for the meeting.
13. The registration fee for state meetings shall be $50.00. There shall be no refunds for registration or meals.
14. The NFMC representative shall be the guest of honor at a reception immediately preceding or following the final banquet. This guest shall be the speaker at the final banquet of the state convention and be allotted time on the convention for a workshop.
15. The host district for the state convention will be responsible for securing the services of a parliamentarian from the area who is not a member of NFMC or FFMC subject to approval of the FFMC President. The cost of the parliamentarian shall be covered by FFMC.
16. Any member who receives a stipend to attend the convention must stay in the convention hotel.
