GLEN AND BARBARA SMERAGE CHAMBER MUSIC AWARD

Winning ensemble receives $2,500

An award of $2,500 shall be given to the winner of the Glen and Barbara Smerage Chamber Music Competition at the annual FFMC Junior Convention. The award is intended to incentivize and promote significant, life-long performance of chamber music by FFMC Junior members (students age 18 and below). The Glen and Barbara Smerage Chamber Music Competition shall be an annual event at the FFMC Junior Convention.

Eligibility: Eligible ensembles shall register for the Glen and Barbara Smerage Chamber Music Competition. An ensemble of which the majority of its members won this Competition previously is not eligible to compete again. An ensemble eligible for the Glen and Barbara Smerage Chamber Music Competition shall be the most advanced trio or quartet of diverse instruments defined in Chamber Music Events in the current Festivals Bulletin of the National Federation of Music Clubs, 1646 W Smith Valley Road, Greenwood, IN 46142. Qualified entrants must receive superior rating in their chamber music event at the local Festival. Award is to be divided among winning ensemble members.

Current Eligible Events: String Trio (violin, viola, cello) and String Quartet (two violins, viola, cello); Piano/String Quartet (piano, violin, viola, cello) and Piano Trio I (Piano, violin, cello) Piano Trio II (piano, flute, cello) and Piano Trio III (piano, clarinet and viola)

GOLD CUP SENIOR CONCERTO SCHOLARSHIP

Graduating high school seniors (all instruments) who have received a superior rating at the district level in senior concerto may elect to enter this event rather than the regular senior concerto event of their instrument. The entrant must have participated in the gold cup program and received at least one NFMC gold cup. Must play the same movement that earned the Superior rating at the Festival. Refer to the Junior Procedures Manual.

CONNIE TUTTLE-LILL ALL PERFORMANCE AWARD

(endowed by Connie Tuttle-Lill)

Winner receives $1,000.00

Juniors who win first place in the highest event in any instrument, ensemble, or voice, are eligible to enter All Performance in subsequent year. Application is made to the Junior State Convention as in any other event. Festival participation is not required. No District round is held. They may continue to enter for any event in which they qualify until they win for that event. Refer to the Junior Procedures Manual.

IRENE MUIR MEMORIAL AWARD

(endowed by C. J. Muir)

Winner receives $1,000.00

Judges may nominate any junior of extraordinary talent and potential, any age, any instrument or voice, to compete at the close of the other events for a cash award. Since these nominations are made by the judges, names of the nominees will be posted at the Registration area.

This event may have imposed time limits if conditions require.

A junior who has won previously is not eligible to compete again.

FLORIDA SUMMER MUSIC CAMP SCHOLARSHIP AWARD

(endowed by FFMC Scholarship Fund)

Winner receives $200.00

Recipient—chosen by FFMC officials from written applications that justify worthiness and need. The Florida Summer Camp Scholarship Award is open to Juniors currently in grades 9, 10 and 11. The applicant must be planning to attend a Florida Summer Music Camp. The award cannot be awarded to the same Junior more than one time.
